

WRITING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM

CRIMINAL JUSTICE LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Content Knowledge
 - Recognize the foundational assumptions and dominant criticisms of criminological and criminal justice theories; Describe the procedures associated with criminal justice processing; Understand diversity issues in criminal justice
- Research Methodology
 - Design a research project and interpret the results of criminal justice research; Understand national crime and victimization databases.
- Communication
 - Present ideas to various CJ communities using professional writing formats
- Critical Thinking
 - Evaluate the validity and reliability of information sources; Employ ethical frameworks to CJ problems; Develop alternative ways of thinking about crime and punishment.